Detailed report on the Activity

Placement Cell of the Department of Civil Engineering in association with Sthapati organized a webinar on "How to crack GRE, TOEFL & GMAT and life in IIT's", by Mr. Srijan R Shetty, Co-founder & CTO allround.club, on 03 December 2020 from 2.00 PM to 4.00 PM.

Mr. Shetty gave a brief idea on how to prepare for GRE, TOEFL and GMAT, which countries accept these exams and what is the importance of writing these exams. Explaining about the life at IIT's, he said that he gained managerial skills by being president of student council. Answering questions put forth by participants about the allround.club, he described that when it comes to the reason for studying, the students should not be bound by bookish knowledge, they should also participate in extracurricular activities, and in allround.club, they provide a plethora of activities for the overall development of their employees.

Around 53 participants including students from Civil Engineering, CSE, E&C Engineering and Mechanical Engineering branch participated. Along with them, faculty and participants from other parts of India were present in the webinar. Ms. Swaliha Sheikh introduced about Mr. Srijan R Shetty, Mr. N Madhusoodhana Rao, Asst. Professor, Department of Civil Engineering was the Master of the Ceremony and Mr. Rohith Prakash Veigas Asst. Professor, Department of Civil Engineering coordinated the program.
