Academic Year	2018-2019
Name of the program	Rangoli
Date	9.02.2019
Number of Participants	12(4 teams)

The Rangoli Competition, was held on 9.02.2019. Rangoli, a traditional Indian art form, involves creating intricate patterns and designs on the ground using colored powders, flowers, or other materials. The competition aimed to celebrate this rich cultural heritage and provide a platform for artists to showcase their creativity and skill in Rangoli-making.

A diverse group of participants, including individuals and teams from various age groups and backgrounds, enthusiastically participated in the competition. From seasoned Rangoli artists to novices, the event attracted participants with a passion for this traditional art form.

Participants were given the freedom to choose their themes and designs for their Rangoli creations. Some opted for traditional motifs inspired by nature, mythology, or religious symbolism, while others explored contemporary themes or incorporated innovative techniques and materials. The variety of designs reflected the unique artistic vision and cultural influences of the participants.

A panel of judges with expertise in Rangoli-making and traditional arts Mr. Vignesh Kalathur, Ms. Sandhya and Ms. Manjula evaluated the entries based on criteria such as creativity, symmetry, intricacy, use of colors, and overall visual impact. The judging process was fair and transparent, ensuring that each entry received careful consideration and appreciation.

Following a thorough evaluation, winners were selected in various categories, including Best Traditional Design, Most Creative Concept, and Best Use of Colors. Special recognition was also given to participants demonstrating exceptional craftsmanship, originality, or cultural significance in their Rangoli creations. 1 Prize won by Jeevitha and team, and second prize bagged by Hrishika and team.
