Activity Report

Academic Year	2021-2022
Name of the program	Cooking competition
Date	5.3.2022
Number of Participants	15

The Cooking Without Fire Competition held on 5.3.2022 at Seminar hall 2 was a delightful and innovative event that showcased the culinary creativity and skills of participants in preparing dishes without the use of conventional cooking methods. This competition aimed to promote healthy eating habits, culinary innovation, and teamwork among participants while emphasizing the importance of nutrition and food safety.

The competition aimed to encourage participants to explore alternative methods of food preparation that do not require cooking with fire, promoting creativity and innovation in the kitchen. Dishes were evaluated based on the following criteria: Creativity and originality in dish presentation and preparation, Nutritional value and balance of ingredients, Taste, texture, and overall flavor profile of the dish. Sunidhi and the team won the first prize. Ms. Sowmya and Ms. Savitha Shenoy were the judges for the competition
