

Activity Report

Academic Year	2018-2019
Name of the program	Elocution
Date	6.05.2019
Number of Participants	6

The elocution competition, themed "Young India," was organized by extra curricular team to provide a platform for young individuals to express their perspectives on the future of India. The competition sought to foster critical thinking, public speaking skills, and civic engagement among participants.

The competition was conducted over one hour, attracting participants from diverse backgrounds and age groups. Contestants were tasked with delivering speeches on various aspects of "Young India," encompassing topics such as education, innovation, social justice, and sustainable development. Judging criteria included clarity of speech, content relevance, articulation, and audience engagement.

A total of 6 individuals participated in the competition, representing a wide range of viewpoints and experiences. The speeches presented by the participants reflected the aspirations, concerns, and vision of the youth for India's future. Topics addressed during the competition ranged from youth empowerment and leadership to environmental sustainability and inclusive growth.

Recognition was also given to participants demonstrating exceptional oratory skills, creativity, and passion for driving positive change in society. Devicharan Shetty won the first prize.
